WHEREAS, there is great interest in head start and early child develooment in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, head start provides South Dakota's children with necessary pre-school develooment; and,

WHEREAS, parents of head start children in the State of South Dakota have recently organized a statewide policy council to improve the education and develooment of their children, to promote entire family participation, and to encourage total community involvement in early child develooment:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 10, 1972, as

and urge all South Dakotans to join in observation of that day and to support their local head start programs.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota in Pierre, the Capital City, this 26th day of April in the Year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-two.
